Candidate's Statement/Énoncé du candidat: I have been a CAIDC Board Member since 2007 and worked on few Board Committees such as Code of Professional Conduct and Strategic Planning. CAIDC is the best organization to represent our profession in Canada. Among its strengths, its reach (a list serve of about 600 development professionals) and its annual conference make it one of the most important organizations in Canada in the sector of international development. I believe I can bring value to CAIDC and it also brings me great networking value in participating. I would like to continue serving on the Board
